

LIBRARY - BULLETIN

Featured Library Resources for School of Design

AdmanGo

AdmanGo is an online library of advertising materials. Media coverage includes TV channels, newspapers and magazines, radio, billboards, MTR, KCRC, Roadshow, First Vision, bus panels, bus shelters and In-store promotions and more.

Oxford Art Online

Oxford Art Online is a comprehensive online reference resource for all aspects of the visual arts.

It comprises of four elements: Grove art online, Concise Oxford Dictionary of Art Terms, Encyclopedia of Aesthetics, and Oxford Companion to Western Art.

Pollock, Jackson (Biography) American painter. Born Cody, Wyo., he had his first art training at Manual Arts College, Los Angeles, and became involved with the followers...

Jackson Pollock: Moon woman Cuts the Circle, oil on canvas, 1.01x1.04... (Image) © Artists Rights Society, NY, photo credit: Erich Lessing/Art Resource, NY Source: Grove Art Online

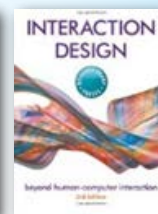

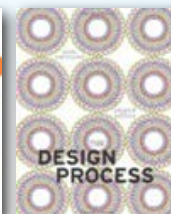

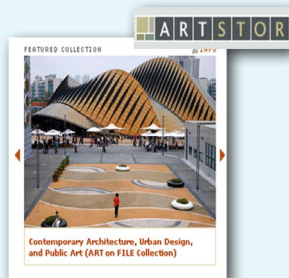

Art and Architecture in Video

Art and Architecture in Video is a collection of documentaries and interviews illustrating the history, theory and practice of art, design and architecture.

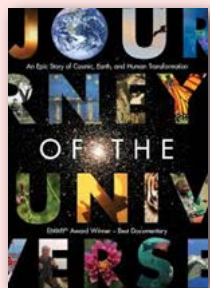

ARTstor Digital Library

TheARTstor Digital Library provides more than one million images with tools for teaching and research. The collections encompass a wide variety of subject areas, including art, architecture, music, religion, anthropology, literature, world history, and more.

- 101 Design Methods : A Structured Approach for Driving Innovation in Your Organization HD45 .K827 2013
- The Design Process NK1510 .A84 2010
- Interaction Design: Beyond Human-computer Interaction QA76.9.H85 P72 2011

Media Resources

Journey of the Universe

QB982 .J68 DVD

Hosted by Yale University historian of religions Mary Evelyn Tucker, this series integrates the perspectives of the sciences and the humanities into a retelling of our 14 billion year story. 'Conversations' with scientists, historians, and environmentalists explore the unfolding story of Earth, the universe, and the role of humans in responding to their present challenges.

e-Resources on Trial

Elgaronline ebook Collections

(Expiry: 5 Mar 2014)

Trial access of about 500 ebook titles from Edward Elgar Publishing in the areas of Law, Economics, Business & Management and Social & Political Science.

