Local TV Programme: Wenzhou Train Collision (溫州列車相撞事故)

On 23 July 2011, two high-speed trains travelling on the Yongtaiwen railway line (甬台溫鐵路) collided on a viaduct in the suburbs of Wenzhou, Zhejiang Province, China. The two trains derailed each other, and four cars fell off the viaduct. At least 39 people were killed, 192 were injured, 12 of which were severe injuries.

Chinese authorities face growing public fury over the high-speed train crash with the disposal of wreckage and attempts to control coverage of the incident prompting allegations of a cover-up.

Find out more detailed reports in our local TV programme collection at the Media Services of the Library (3/F)
